PLAYED DOUBLE-HEADER

Lynchburg and Norfolk Break Even in Two Games.

NORFOLK, VA., June 19 .- In a doubleheader this afternoon the Tercentennials and the Hill Climbers divided honors, the first game going to the locals in oasy fashion by the score of 12 to 0, and the second to Lynchburg-3 to 2. The must of an easy fly to center by Dingle in the sixth inning lost the second game to Norfolk. Two runners went home on to Norfolk. Two runners went home on the error.

In the first inning the Tercentennials batted heavily, seemingly hitting the ball at will. Pitcher Reese was to tigel likering. All the heavy Lynchburg hitters looked allke to Leonard in this game, and, regardless of present conditions or past records, all of them were mown down and out.

down and out.

The second game was more of a contest between pitchers, and, although lost to Norfolk by a narrow margin, on account of Dingle's error, Otey, who pitched most of the game for the locals, had the best of the argument. A large and enthusiastic crowd witnessed the game. To-morrow Moser, who has suffered but one defeat this season, and that at the hands of Norfolk, will again be in the box for Lynchburg. The score:

Long didn't get his bumps in the first mains, but walted until the eighth had rolled around before he permitted the Tobacconists to connect. The six runs tell the story. There is nothing more to say about that inning except to mark Richmond one point lower in the standing column.

Cuddy got his butting eye back again and smacked out three singles in Monday's game. Those, three swats hurt the great Howard somewhat and would have meant the winnings of the game. Philadelphia, 2; Cleveland, o. CLEVELAND, OHIO, June 19.-Cleve-land outbatted Philadelphia, but lost the game and first place, being shut out by Waddell.

Lynchburg, owing to the location of its park, has certainly played up-hill games. One of the stockholders of the Cinclinati ball club has started for the North Pole. If some stockholders here who get a frost would leave, there wouldn't be enough in the city to count. Never fear fans. The Richmond team may lose-all the summer, but they'll-le somewhere near fourth at the end. Bierman is said to have been sold to the South Atlantic Lengue for a good sum. Benny evidently got some trading stamps.

sum. Benny evidency stamps.

Rube Waddell, of the Philadelphia Athletics, in the American League, is still out of the game on account of the indury to his hand. He broke his thumb and has been on the bench for some time.

Eddle Rose, who asked for his release from the Richmond team, will very probably play with the Richmond Brownies, a team organized by Albert Anthony and which is composed of some of the fastest amateurs of the city.

Two players will be added to the Richmond team. There will be one heavy-hitting out-fielder and one good pitcher. With these two the team will remain the same. Some one may be released, but these two players will be signed.

Hass will not be a regular player with the Richmond team. He went to Danville as a utility man and may pitch a game there if it becomes necessary.

The Ink Slingers received the '22" In the game that Danville played in Lynchburg some weeks ago when Jack Grim forced a double-header on Manager Benny, may be thrown out. Benny, claims that he was not in a position for a double-header and that he did not have a pitcher ready. He entered a protest before the game and this protest, it is said, will hold good.

a double-header and that he did not have a pitcher ready. He entered a protest before the game and this protest, it is said, will hold good.

Moser, the mighty, is slated to open the game here Thirsday. What if he gots his bums again. There are many who believe that one defeat will send him to the clover fields for a rest.

By the way, the Colonel from Kentucky, who is the quiet man for Richmond, hasn't done so very bad. He has pitched twelve games and ton of them have not been lost. He did lose two games and he tied the other. Nine came into the Richmond pocket. That isn't such had pitching.

The next man who puts his hands upon an umpire will get soaked and get soaked hard by the officials of the Virginia League. There won't be any morey. At the meeting Monday night in Norfolk it was decided that horeafter the umpires should have all of the authority. Fred Mace, the somedian, has recently dramatized a play called "The Limpire". Fred Mace, the comedian, has recently dramatized a play called "The Umpire." He could have gotten some good points had he witnessed some games in Norfolk and Portsmouth.

FUN FOR JUNE.

Tournaments That Will Take Place at Lakeside Country Club.

A series of monthly handleap tournaments will take place at the Lakeside Country Club on the last Saturday of each month. The winner of each tournament will receive a handsome prize. Handleap lists are now posted at the club-house for the month of June, the first tournament taking place Saturday, June 30th. Unusual interest is being manifested in this series of tournaments, as they will lead up to the fall tournament, to be announced later, which is expected to be a brilliant success, and the club team will be selected, and a series of club matches played in connection with and after the regular fall tournament. The links are now in a better condition than ever before, and the management expressed a desire to use severy effort in improving and making the course as attractive as any in the South. With the opening of the new trolley line the number of competitors will be largely increased, and indicements will be offered to the public and special arrangements made for specialies, which will undoubtedly make the Lakeside Country Club more popular than over. An innovation in the confidence in the course to be eligible are required to turn in overy score made. Place at Lakeside Country Club.
